Collectors, hobbyists and families will converge at the Aquatic Center this weekend for the 55th Annual Lake Havasu Gem and Mineral Show.

The event runs Saturday, Nov. 8, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sunday, Nov. 9, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at 100 Park Avenue in Lake Havasu City. General admission is $5 for the full weekend, with free entry for children under 12. A $1 discount is available with a coupon or advertisement.

Hosted by the Lake Havasu Gem and Mineral Society, the show is the longest-running event in Lake Havasu City and draws several thousand attendees each year. Vendors will offer raw stones, cabochons, jewelry, fossils, geodes, tools, slabs and gifts. Members will also display handcrafted designs and unique mineral collections.

Hourly door prizes, a silent auction, games, and a scavenger hunt will be available, along with food trucks and home-baked goods. Demonstrations, including geode cracking, will showcase professional techniques and provide interactive experiences for visitors.

Raffle baskets filled with community-donated items will help fund scholarships for local high school seniors pursuing studies in Earth science or related fields.
